A duly authorized representative of the corporation or trust investor understands that in respect of the above-mentioned shares:

- There is a requirement to hold the investment for a minimum of four years;
- If, before the end of the four-year holding period, the corporation or trust investor redeems, cancels or disposes of a share or have received the benefit of a tax credit it was not entitled to, it shall repay the amount of the tax credit received, including interest. In addition, the applicant corporation is required to withhold, from the amount otherwise payable to the corporation or trust investor, the amount of the allowed tax credits and pay the withheld amount to the Minister of Finance and Treasury Board within 30 days;
- The investment is in compliance with section 21(2) of the Small Business Investor Tax Credit Act;
- No financial assistance from any government, municipality or public authority has been received in the acquisition of these shares;
- No tax credits have been previously allowed under the New Brunswick Income Tax Act for these shares;
- No shares of the applicant corporation after Dec. 10, 2002, and before the specified share issuance have been disposed of;
- During the four-year holding period for the specified share issuances, the corporation or trust investor will provide the eligible applicant corporation and Finance and Treasury Board and Department of Justice and Attorney General any information to ensure compliance with the Small Business Investor Tax Credit Program and the Securities Act;
- Have read the investment plan and understand what the capital will be used for, and it is acknowledged that the corporation or trust investor is investing entirely at its own risk;
- Understand that the maximum annual tax credit limit per investor is $75,000.
