NOTICE

As required by the Protection of Personal Information Act and the Right to Information Act.

In compliance with the Gaming Control Act, in order to complete or verify the information provided on or with this form and to determine eligibility for registration, it may be necessary for the Registrar of Gaming Control to collect and receive additional information from any source, including from some or all of the following domestic and foreign sources: federal governments (including Canada Customs and Revenue Agency/IRS), provincial governments, state governments or municipal governments, licensing bodies, police services, other law enforcement agencies, sheriff's offices, the Registrar of Bankruptcy, credit bureaus, trust companies, banks, professional and industry associations, former and current employers, and any government Ministry or Agency. The New Brunswick Lotteries and Gaming Corporation and the Gaming Control Branch are required under the Protection of Personal Information Act and the Right to Information Act to protect the confidentiality of such information in its possession and control and to use the information only for purposes for which it is collected or for consistent purposes.

Information collected may be used and disclosed as follows:

1. To evaluate the applicant, and individuals and corporations identified in connection with the applicant, regarding their person, financial, business and criminal history, honesty and business integrity;
2. Information on the applicant, and on individuals and corporations identified in connection with the applicant, may be shared with Government officials who are assisting the Branch in the evaluation of applicants for registration;
3. The Branch may share information on the applicant, and on individuals and corporations identified in connection with the applicant, with other jurisdictions with which it makes formal agreements;
4. The Branch may share information on the applicant, and on individuals and corporations identified in connection with the applicant, with law enforcement agencies for gaming-related investigations or clearances; and
5. To conduct ongoing personal history investigations, including checks for criminal charges outstanding and past criminal convictions or criminal records, during the entire course of the applicant's registration with the Gaming Control Branch.

I agree to give the Branch, as and when requested, any additional or written authorization that is required for the purposes of this application.
