

EVIDENCE OF PARENTAGE

I am entitled to claim support for the child named below.

I ask the Court to declare that the respondent is a parent of the child:

Full name of child (Last, First, Middle)	Child's Date of Birth (day, month, year)

I claim that the respondent is a parent of the child because (check all that apply):

- The claimant and respondent were married to each other, or in a registered relationship, at the time of the child's birth.
 - The marriage of the claimant and respondent ended by a divorce judgment within 300 days before the birth of the child.
 - The claimant and respondent married each other after the child was born, and the respondent said he is the father.
 - The respondent has said, in writing, that he is the father of the child. (copy attached)
 - The respondent is registered as the father of the child on the birth registration or Vital Statistics records. (copy attached)
 - The claimant and respondent lived together as a couple when the child was born, or the child was born within 300 days after the end of the relationship. The claimant and respondent had lived together as a couple for approximately _____. (years, months)
 - The claimant did not have sexual intercourse with any other man during the time 30 days before to 30 days after the date the child was conceived.
 - A genetic test was done to establish parentage. It shows the respondent is a parent of the child. (copy attached)
 - The respondent is not a biological parent of the child, but has acted as a parent to the child.
- I believe the respondent will agree with a finding of parentage, or
 - I believe the respondent may dispute parentage of the child. I attach Form 4 and additional documents to support my claim that the respondent is (or acted as) a parent of the child.

This document is attached to, and forms part of the evidence in, my support application/support variation application:
